Origin: Chardonnay's sire, Constantin, has year after year, consistently produced top ponies that have excelled in sport throughout Germany. In the Weser-Ems district where the majority of his progeny are registered, Chardonnay stands out completely. He has successfully competed in all major competitions, often against high-quality warmblood breeding stallions and besting them with his scores. He has an excellent temperament, is very talented in dressage and as an added bonus he jumps very well. He is well known for his desire to please his rider. This is an attribute he gets from Constantin.
